APPLICATION

- Who do you need to forgive or ask for forgiveness from? How can you honor God in this relationship starting this week?
- Think of one person you don't get along with. Would you be willing to pray for this person every day for the next week?
- How can you choose to trust God when you'd rather retaliate? What can you do to show love to an enemy this week?

PRAYER

- Thank God that He loves us even though we are sinners and undeserving of His love.
- Ask God for His strength to love others even when it is difficult. Pray that God would help you do this in practical ways this week.
- Declare love, peace, goodness, and blessings in your relationships. Pray that God would be honored in each one.

© 2015 by VICTORY® All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations are from The Holy Bible, English Standard Version® (ESV®), Copyright © 2001 by Crossway, a publishing ministry of Good News Publishers. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Permission to photocopy this material is granted for local church use. This is not for sale. victory.org.ph

I WISH JESUS DIDN'T SAY THAT!

WEEK 1

"Love Your Enemies"

NOTES

WARM-UP

- Growing up, did you ever have an enemy? What caused you to dislike the person? What happened?
- What is your natural response when you are frustrated? Recall an instance explaining this.
- What's the best thing someone has done for you this week? How did you appreciate him/her?

⁴³"You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' ⁴⁴But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, ⁴⁵so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust." MATTHEW 5:43-45

The natural, emotional, and popular response to having an enemy is to hate him or her. However, Jesus commands His disciples to do the opposite. As a reflection that we are God's children, we are to be like God who hates sin and yet cares for everyone, including the wicked. When we are faced with a choice to hate or love our enemies, Jesus commands us to always choose love. In this lesson, we will look at how we can honor God when we respond towards our enemies.

1 Do good.

³⁸"You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' ³⁹But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also." MATTHEW 5:38,39

When we are wronged, we can retaliate and take matters into our own hands, or we can trust God about what happened and honor Him in how we will respond. How do we overcome evil (Romans 12:21)?

2 Bless.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. ROMANS 12:14 When others speak ill of us, we can say worse things about them and curse them, or we can bless them and pray for them. Recall a time when you chose to bless someone instead of curse. What happened? 3 Forgive. ²¹Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?" ²²Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy-seven times." MATTHEW 18:21,22 When we are tempted to hold a grudge, we can either become offended and bitter, or we can obey Jesus' command and forgive. Why do you think Jesus wanted us to forgive seventy-seven times? Why should we forgive without keeping track of the other person's sins against us?